Linux Basic Commands Test (20 Questions)

1. Write the command to display the current working directory.
2. Write the command to list all files and directories in the current directory.
3. Write the command to change directory to `/etc`.
4. Write the command to create a directory named `testdir`.
5. Write the command to create an empty file named `file1.txt`.
6. Write the command to copy `file1.txt` to `backup.txt`.
7. Write the command to move `file1.txt` to `/home/user/` directory.
8. Write the command to rename `file1.txt` to `data.txt`.
9. Write the command to remove a file named `data.txt`.
10. Write the command to remove a directory named `testdir`.
11. Write the command to display the contents of a file named `notes.txt`.
12. Write the command to display the first 10 lines of a file named `log.txt`.
13. Write the command to display the last 10 lines of `log.txt`.
14. Write the command to search for the word `error` inside `log.txt`.
15. Write the command to change file permission of `script.sh` to executable.
16. Write the command to change the owner of `file.txt` to user `shiv`.
17. Write the command to display currently working directory.
18. Write the command to display disk space usage of the system.
19. Write the command to find a file named `config.txt` in `/etc` directory.
20. Write the command to switch to the root user.

Basic Networking Test (10 Questions)

21. Write the command to display the IP address configuration of a Linux system.
22. Write the command to test connectivity to `google.com`.
23. Write the command to display active network connections and listening ports.
24. Write the command to trace the route to `google.com`.
25. Write the command to check DNS information for `google.com`.
26. Write the command to display the routing table in Linux.
27. Write the command to restart the network service in Linux.
28. Write the command to display all network interfaces on the system.
29. Write the command to download a file from a URL using terminal.
30. Write the command to connect to a remote server using SSH with username `admin` and IP `192.168.1.10`.